The Bill Extending the Time of the Collection of Taxes.

The following is the text of the "bill for extending the time for the collection of county and township levies for the year 1874," which was approved on the 20th instant. It is of importance to tax-payers generally, and especially to collectors and sureties, and to officers of courts:

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That the several collectors of taxes and county and township levies of cities, towns and townships of this State be allowed until the 1st day of June, 1875, instead of the 1st day March, 1875, as now provided by law, to proceed with and close up their several collections; and that the several treasurers of the counties and corporations of this State be allowed until the 1st day of June 1875, to make their final settlement with the collectors in their respective counties and corporations; and that the said treasurers be allowed until the 15th day of June, 1875, to make their final settlement with the Auditor of Public Accounts: provided, The extension of time hereby granted shall not apply to taxes and county and township levies already collected and in the hands of said officers, and that all collections which may be made by them prior to the first day of June, 1875, shall be made into the treasury of the State as now prescribed by law: Provided further, That the several treasurers and collectors of taxes, and county, city and township levies of this State, shall before they are allowed to discharge these duties of their office under the provisions of this act, obtain the consent of their sureties: Provided, That the consent of the sureties of said collectors and treasurers may be given in person before the county judge in term-time or vacation, or by a writing signed by such sureties or by power of attorney authorizing some other person to sign their names to such writing to be duly recorded by the clerk of the county court, and certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts: provided, That if the treasurers and collectors shall fail to renew their bonds as herein provided their offices shall be deemed vacant, and the vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided by law: And provided further, That it shall not be lawful for the collectors to sell for the said taxes before the first day of April, 1875. The several collectors and treasurers of of the counties of this Commonwealth are hereby required to make payment on the first of every month of all amounts received up to said dates.

2. This act shall be in force from its passage.

The Upright Man.

How hard it is in this world of sin for a man to be truly just; just before God, before men and to himself. From the cradle to the tomb, at every step man has to meet and overcome temptation and inclination to wrong-doing. Every sense cries out for gratification, and too often, alas! the welfare of others is overlooked, self can be gratified. But it is a delightful sight here and there to see on earth a man who is enabled, either by force of character, as it is properly called, or, as it should more properly called, by the grace of God, to rise above self as a rock against these opposing and selfish forces within him, or without, and thus "do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly." Such a man will in every place stand firm against and oppose evil or error. He will seek the good of others as well as his own, and render unto all their just due. While he may resent an insult, he will yet do it in such a way as to shame the person offering it rather than to arouse his anger. He will be ever ready to assist the needy, yet so as to enable such to help themselves, rather than to humble and weaken them. He will be slow to put himself forward or appear ostentatious, and yet will ever be ready to do his own duty as a man, not because he will be praised for it, but because it is right. When such a man gives his word for the performance of any duty, deed or act, it can always be relied upon as sure of fulfilment. He will be slow, it may be, to promise, but sure to perform, even though a great sacrifice will often have to be made, because he prizes his character above gain.

Finally, the upright man is one who can be trusted. His words may be few, but they are gold. Men will wait for his opinion; they will follow his examples. He is a person in the world of good. Few can know his inward struggles, but all see the bright shining of his life, and his generation will be blessed, for he ever carries a blessing with him.

A Printer's Dog.

He was one of the most forlorn looking creatures you ever saw, but yet was the "knowingest" dog that ever lived. He is a resident of Memphis now, having been enticed to that city by a printer, for whom he had formed an attachment. During the several years he remained in this city, beginning about the close of the war, he was known as "the printers' dog." Nobody knew from whence he came, or anything about his antecedents. He had no regular home, but would loaf around the various printing offices when off duty—his "duty" consisted in attaching himself to the person of any printer who might happen to be wandering about the street intoxicated, and patiently follow him around wherever he went until he sobered off. Kicks and cuffs had no effect upon him in diverting him from his self-imposed task, and he has been known to thus watch over, so to speak, for days together, some typo who entered upon an extensive spree. The dog never thus attended any but printers, and was never seen in the company of persons following other pursuits, and so well known did this remarkable characteristic become that no printers objected to being seen in his company, for fear people would think them intoxicated.—Nashville Banner.

The Coming Man.

Yesterday morning was cold and cheerless. Standing on the corner of Fourth and Main streets was a boy—he was a poor boy, and looking at him reminded us of the words of the little song:

"Out in the cold world,
Out in the street,
Running a errand,
Of each one I meet."

His form was thinly clad, he wore a cloth cap; his pants were torn, his shirt was thin and ragged, and he wore a garment that might have been a coat a long time ago. And there he stood, shivering, tears trickling down his rosy cheek, smother d in dirt, his little bare feet peeping out of his pants, and his eyes fixed upon his dirty, shoeless, trembling feet. He looked like a moneyless and friendless wanderer, whom charity had kicked out of the poor-house; time by one people passed him by—just like the world—but presently a young man who clerks in a Main street house in day time and goes to the skating rink with his "intended" at night, saw him. He didn't have time to ask the object, but what he could do to aid him, before the poor boy said: "Mister, please sir give me two dollars to buy a pair of shoes with," and the boy wept. The young man gave him the two dollars, feeling that he had made one heart happy, at least. At night the young man took his girl into the skating park, and had told her his act of charity toward the boy. Out to put her skates on for her saw this poor, pitiful son-of-a-gun, putting a brand new pair of skates. The boy saw him, and as he arose and slid off, he yelled at his benefactor and struck off singing, "I'm hell on skates, mister," and he's gone. Uncle Sam ought to speak to that boy to take Phil's place when he dies.—Courier-Journal.

Necessity of Substituting Labor.

The great trouble with most of the American people is, they are not willing to "labor any wait." They are in a hurry to get rich. The farmer exhausts his soil in raising wheat he thinks will realize the most money in the quickest time possible, and the result is the people are getting poorer every year by no thoroughly systematic. Young men are not willing to be farmers, or mechanics because they think they arrive at time will be too long ere they arrive at affluence. Hence they seek to better their condition by speculations," or engaging in business. So the world moves, and the aggregate amount of poverty, discontent, misery and disho increases instead of diminishing. The laws of Germany compel the young to serve an apprenticeship at some trade of business. This teaches them to be expert and self-reliant. Wherever you see a German you see a man that can "get on" in the world. Commercial Colleges or a smathering of technicalities will not make a business man or a professional man out of a lazy, undeveloped piece of humanity. One must be faithful, laborious, persistent, in order to succeed. Boys, young men, realize this; you must work and endure before you will do any good for yourself in the world.

The Marriage Fee.

Parson Allen was quite a wag, as well as a peculiarly interesting preacher. He was often called upon to perform the marriage ceremony, and his peculiarities on such occasions often furnished a supply of merriment long after the parties had retired from the parsonage.

On one occasion after the marriage knot was tied, the bridegroom supposing that the parson was entitled by law to a certain fee and would therefore return the change, handed the minister a ten dollar bill, which he carefully folded and placed in his pocket. The parson having notice the X on the corner of the old bank note, kept up a lively conversation on, amongst on the ups and downs of married life, till the groom became somewhat nervous over the delay in relation to the change, and he ventured to say: "Parson, that was a ten dollar bill I gave you."

"Yes; so I perceive. You are very generous; it is not often that I receive so large a fee. A comfortable thing, a bank note in one's pocket," and then he gave some amusing illustration, and another ten minutes of precious time was consumed. The groom ventured to remind the parson that he had not returned the change, and unhesitatingly said: "Perhaps you do not think that [illegible] charges. I noticed that [illegible] you that I have not been [illegible] a long time. I always think [illegible] cautious that the husband has a [illegible] native regard for his worthy [illegible] I presume you regard your [illegible] worth at least ten dollars, and I doubt if you would have the knot untied for twice that sum would you, Mr. [illegible]

"Not I," replied the nonplussed bridegroom; "but is there no regular fee that the minister is allowed to take from married folks?"

"Not that I am aware of," replied the parson; "we always leave the fee to be fixed by the parties who get married."

And so the bridegroom, defeated at all points, gave up the effort to get back the change.

Education.

Every boy should have his head, his heart and his hand educated. Let this truth never be forgotten. By the proper education of the head he will be taught what is good and what is wrong. By the proper education of the heart he will be taught to love what is good and wise, and right, and to hate what is evil, foolish and wrong. And by proper education of the hand he will be enabled to supply his wants, to add to his comforts, and to assist those around him. The highest object of a good education is to love and serve mankind. Everything that hinders us is comparatively worthless. When wisdom reigns in the head and love in the heart the man is ever ready to do good; order and peace reign around, and sin and sorrow are almost unknown.

Advice is like snow—the softer it falls, the longer it dwells upon, and the deeper it sinks into the mind.

As the eye which has gazed at the sun cannot immediately discern any other object; as the man who has been accustomed to behold the ocean, turns with contempt from a stagnant pool; so the mind which has contemplated eternity, looks coldly and disdainfully on the things of time.

LEE COUNTY SENTINEL.

Jonesville, Va., Friday, February 12, 1875.

J. B. WEST, CHARLES WILLOUGHBY. } Editors and Proprietors.

Gen. Bowen Present Every Roll Call.

The Democrats in the U. S. House of Representatives made a noble fight in opposition to the Civil Rights Bill, on the 3rd inst. They fought for adjournment for forty-six hours; and like faithful guardians, without intermission until they carried their point. At every roll call, we are glad to notice Gen. Bowen was at his post doubtless watching the tricks and manœuvres of the Radicals, and ready to vote in accordance with the interests of his section.

The Civil Rights Bill.

From a telegram to the Richmond Whig, we learn that on the 8th, the Civil Rights Bill was finally disposed of in the House, after a long and exciting debate, in the presence of an immense assembly.

The first vote was on an amendment offered by Mr. Kellogg, of Connecticut, to strike out of the House bill the provision relating to schools, and that was carried by a large majority, but without the yeas and nays.

The next vote was on the motion Mr Cessana, of Penn., to substitute the Senate bill for the House bill, and was lost.

The bill was then passed—aye, 162; nays, 100.

The next vote was on attaching as a preamble to the bill a clause of the Democratic platform of 1872 affirming the equality of all men before the law.

That was adopted, ayes 219; nays 36—the nays being all Southern Democrats, with one Northern Republican (Mr. Chittenden, of New York.)

The bill now goes to the Senate for action as an original House bill, having no relation whatever to the bill passed by the Senate.

Had not so many members of the House desired to speak, there would have been a vote on the bill on the 4th inst. The debate was opened by Mr. Blount, of Ga. who was followed by Mr. Sener, of Virginia. The latter, (a Republican), defended his course in voting steadily against the Civil Rights Bill, and against all propositions or measures intended to make the passage of the bill possible. The following is a report of the speech of Hon. J. B. Sener, referred to:

Mr. Sener said he recognized the fact that he stood in a peculiar position, yet, but for the fact that he had been indecently assaulted, he should not feel it incumbent upon him to stand here and justify his position or the vote he should give on the Civil Rights bill. He was here after he had twice given his vote against the measure. As a representative of the people he had the right, under the Constitution, to speak here not only in discussion, but when his name was called to vote.

He had so spoken from his honest convictions, and for so speaking he had been denounced as the Judas Iscariot of the Republican party. The Civil Rights bill had never been recognized as all of Republicanism. In 1872 the eleven reconstructed States voted for the first time for a President of the United States, and 8 of them voted for Ulysses S. Grant. In not one of them was the Civil Rights bill made a test of Republicanism. His own State, that never before swerved from Democracy, at that time cast her vote for that soldier and statesman, Grant.

Radicalism and Secession.

TRUTH ELOQUENTLY SPOKEN BY HON. BENJAMIN H. HILL, OF GEORGIA.

"Secession was a mistake—a terrible mistake; but secession was not crime.—[Great applause.] It violated no oaths; it trampled upon no individual rights; it dispersed no Legislatures; it thrilled no State; it sought to shed no blood; it burnt no houses! Radicalism is no mistake. It is deliberate, intentional, wicked, ever-increasing crime; (applause) it has trampled upon ten thousand oaths to support the Constitution. It defied the law as a fact that it might destroy the union as a principle, under pretense of constructing the States it has destroyed States. It has sworn to support the Constitution only to pervert the Constitution; under pretence of establishing peace it has inaugurated the direst tyrany, poverty and sorrow; it has burned cities, it has dispersed Legislatures, it has robbed the poor, plundered the innocent, and it has chained liberty to the car of tyranny. I arraign Radicalism today before the bar of this outraged country as the only real international rebel in American history (Applause.) It is a rebel against the Constitution of our fathers; it is a rebel against the sovereignty of the States; it a rebel against the domestic tranquility which the Constitution was intended to insure; it is a rebel against every principle of justice, and a rebel against every blessing of liberty. (Tremendous applause.)"

Railroad to Cumberland Gap.

The following letter from Hon. Thos. S. Gibson, our Delegate from the county of Lee, in the Legislature of Virginia, in connection with the one just after it, relating to a railroad through Kentucky to Cumberland Gap, will be read with interest by all our readers—in the county, especially:

GIBSON'S STATION, VA.,
Feb'y. 9th, 1875.

EDITORS OF SENTINEL:

I enclose you a letter written to me, in relation to a railroad to Cumberland Gap. You will please publish the same in your interesting paper, for the benefit of your numerous readers in Lee county.

Very Respectfully,
THOS. S. GIBSON.

[LETTER FROM MR. THOS. S. JONES.]

NEWPORT, KY., }
Jan. 29th, 1875. }

HON. THOS. S. GIBSON,

Dear Sir:—Alexander Greer, Esq., of Covington, has just called upon me, and requested me to write you: first apologizing for delay, and then telling you of our hopes and expectations of meeting all of you east and south of Cumberland Gap, at that point, with railroad lines. I represent the Kentucky Branch of the Chicago & South Atlantic Railroad Company, and we expect to begin operations in the Spring, to carry the work through this State. Our object is to build as near as practicable, an air line road from Ghent, on the Ohio river, to the Gap. We hope to raise stock from the counties along the line, and with the aid of Chicago capitalists, to complete the work as soon as possible. I hope that all who are interested in build ng roads on the other side, will meet us at the Gap, will not flag in their efforts, but will move on till the desired object is accomplished. They are working vigorously from Charleston almost to the Tennessee line, and also from Chicago towards the Ohio river, to establish this great line from the Lakes to the Sea.

Very Respectfully,
THOS. S. JONES.

SUNNY SOUTH.—On our table is a copy of this journal, published by Job. H. Seals, Atlanta, Ga.; and we commend it to the reading public, because it reflects southern views and opinions, having for its contributors some of the ablest authors of the South. It is gotten up in fine style and is handsomely illustrated. Mrs. Gen. L. P. Hill, and Mary. E. Bryan, are among its contributors.

PHYSIOLOGISTS say that our Bodies are renewed once in seven years. The material of which they are reconstructed is the blood, and unless it be fully charged with the elements of vitality, the strength and health of the system decline. Of all blood depurents Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is the safest and most infallible.—There is no disease, arising from deprivation of the blood, which it will not speedily arrest.

DO YOU FORGET that the SENTINEL is sent Free all over the country, and no increase of subscription rates, and only 2 cents is asked in addition to regular price of subscription, from patrons outside the county, for postage which we have pay in advance. Now is the time to send in your names. Both Congress and State Legislature are now in session, and if you wish to be posted in regard to the great political changes now going on you should believe in Free Government, White Supremacy, and Democratic Principles, then don't delay a moment, but sign down, and enclose amount of subscription. If you are really in favor of the great principles we advocate, shew your patronizing our enterprise. If you think a paper worth taking, why take it! People when pudding generally eat it when they can get it.

VINEGAR BITTERS
VEGETABLE ★ FREE FROM ALCOHOL
PURELY ★ CALIFORNIA
DR. WALKER'S
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for this purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Jaundice.—In all cases of jaundice, rest assured that your liver is not doing its work. The only sensible treatment is to promote the secretion of the bile and lavor its removal. For this purpose use VINEGAR BITTERS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

TO THE VOTERS OF LEE COUNTY:

You are hereby informed that I am a candidate for election to the office of CLERK of the County and Circuit Courts, at the election to be held in May next. It is my determination to see every man in the county before the election, either at Jonesville on Court days, or to visit them at their homes. If elected, I will perform the duties of the position to the best of my ability, and the people will never have just cause to say that I proved recreant to the trust confided to me. Against my opponents, whoever they may be, I have not a word to say; two citizens who are already reported as candidates, are both gentlemen as far as I know them.

Respectfully,
ISAIAH DAUGHERTY.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—Next Sunday, the 14th, is St. Valentine's day, which has for many years, been held as a day sacred to lovers; some have supposed that on this day the birds speak love to each other in their songs, and choose their companions for the coming year. It has also been a day upon which lovers send to the objects of their affections, dainty bits of tinted paper, beautifully fringed, with representations of Cupid, the God of love, in the corners, symbolic of the love borne to them. Ugly burlesques, and horrid caricatures are often sent by persons who desire to sting the pride of and mortify those whom they dislike.

We would still urge upon our readers the necessity of providing themselves with some good remedy for the cure of coughs and colds. Ever since the prevailing epizootic made its appearance, Symphronia has been the only remedy that would check it and conquer the most obstinate cases. Try it and be convinced, is our advice.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE RESIDENCE OF M. D. RICHMOND, ESQ.—OLD VIRGINIA HOSPITALITY ILLUSTRATED—THE APPEARANCE OF THE BRIDE AND GROOM—THE BELLS AND BEAUX PRESENT—ELEGANT SUPPER, &C., &C., &C.—On Friday evening a large number of invited guests from Jonesville, and all parts of the county, assembled at the residence of M. D. Richmond, Esq., to attend a house-warming by that gentleman, he having been married on the day before, to the beautiful Mrs. Saluda J. Sewell. Mr. R. was always considered lucky, and, judging from the many favorable comments we heard made upon his charming looking and apparently amiable and accomplished bride, this marriage might be considered as the crowning point of his luck. The groom looked as fresh and bright as the dew drop on the full blown rose, and the embodiment of happiness. The entertainment was delightful and fully illustrated Old Virginia hospitality. The table seated thirty persons and was full nearly four times; being tastefully arranged, and just groaned with name turkeys, chickens, roast pig, cakes, confectioneries, and all seemed to have had their appetites whetted by the time they repaired to the dining room; all enjoyed the rich things set before them to their heart's content.

Mrs. Judge Lane received the company in behalf of the ladies, and she acted her part with that grace an affability characteristic of her, while we think she made all feel at home and happy; she was assisted by Mrs. Prof. Wiley, with her pleasing manners and joyous temperament.

Prof. Wiley, assisted by Messrs. Chas. Willoughby, S. H. Minter, Frank Richmond and Ad Cook, received the company, did the hospitalities of the table, prepared our generous and thoughtful host, and truly did each perform his part with honor, and each aided greatly by his becoming energy, attention and delightful manner in causing the occasion to pass off to the complete enjoyment of all. About one hundred guests were present.

From the attention of the beaux, we were led to believe that true love never dies, faints or wearies, but is as devoted and spotless as the new-fallen snow, and is the brightest fire that ever burns on the alter stone of the human heart. We noticed that some of the young men kept close by the side of their sweethearts, and entertained them within constancy worthy of admiration, and caused the very atmosphere around to be luxuriant with sweetness and smiles. As to the bride and groom, both were bright and radiant with smiles, and, as now and then they got a respite from replying to the congratulations of friends, and an opportunity was afforded them to glance at each other, it seemed to us that their thoughts were:

"[illegible] from [illegible] eyes the [illegible] tell,
They [illegible]
[illegible]
Of joy or sorrow known!
And grief, divided with my heart,
Were sweeter far than joy apart."

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

All diseases of the skin are blood diseases for when the blood is pure the skin must be free from all outward eruptions. Pimples on the face or body, erysipelas, [illegible] ulcers, sores, boils, carbuncles, and every disease which shows itself upon the surface of the skin is caused by bad blood. Blotches in the hair, sore eyes, running from the ears etc., are caused by vile humors on the blood, which can be easily exterminated by using Frazier's Root Bitters.

A CURE FOR HUMORS & PIMPLES ON THE FACE.—To the doctor [illegible] and [illegible] of Frazier's Root Bitters. Dear Sir:—My object in writing this [illegible] is to spread valuable information. Having been troubled with humors and pimples on my face and body, and after trying sarsaparilla and many other [illegible] advertised for scrofula, the blood and [illegible] no benefit, I commenced using Root Bitters, and less than three bottles has effected a radical cure. I never enjoyed such good health before, and I attribute it to the use of your bitters.

NOTICES FROM THE PRESS.

Frazier's Root Bitters. This scientific medical preparation has achieved a reputation unprecedented wherever introduced, and is without doubt the greatest discovery for banishing disease ever offered to the American people.—It is at once a Strengthening Tonic, Blood Purifier and Healer; it braces up and supplies the vital forces, feeds the fagged system and enables nature to repair her [illegible] Daily Herald.

NOELL HOUSE,

JONESVILLE, VA.

Having removed to the property two doors east of Cooper's store, I am prepared to accommodate my former friends and the public generally, in first-class style.

I have secured from Judge Morgan, 4 rooms in our "general Bastile," which have been refitted and refurnished; therefore am much better prepared than ever before, to keep a good Hotel.

TERMS MODERATE.

I extend thanks for past patronage, and respectfully solicit continuance of the same.

Also have spacious accommodations for horses, opposite Richmond's store.

VIRGINIA:—At rules held in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Lee county, on Monday, the 4th day of January, 1875. John H. Allen for Benjamin F. Haburn, Pltff. against John M. Crabtree et al., Defts. IN CHANCERY. ORIGINAL AND DEVISAVIT.

The object of this suit is to subject to sale the two tracts of land in the bill mentioned, owned by the defendant John M. Crabtree, for the payment of the debt in the bill mentioned, due the plaintiff, and to ascertain who of the parties to the suit, other than the said defendant Crabtree, are entitled to the proceeds of the said land. And it appearing from an affidavit filed in the cause that the defendants John M. Crabtree and Benjamin B. Martin are non-residents of this Commonwealth: they are therefore ordered to appear here within one month after this order shall be published, and do what is necessary to protect their rights in this cause. Too numerous to mention. He keeps every article that can be found in a first-class store, a greater variety, and a larger stock of Goods than can be found in any store in South-Western Virginia, or East Tennessee, or in fact any other places, from the fact that he keeps a general assortment, wholesale and retail, while other houses as large deal only in a special line of merchandise. This House receives and opens New Goods every Friday, so merchants throughout the county and adjoining counties can be supplied on short notice, on cheap terms, and with comparatively small expense as to freight.

He buys his goods direct from manufacturers, and first class houses in the Eastern Cities, at the

HAVE YOU TRIED

JURUBEBA

ARE YOU

Weak, Nervous, or Debilitated?

ARE YOU SO LANGUID that any exertion more effort than you are capable of making?

Then try JURUBEBA, the wonderful TONIC and INVIGORATOR, which acts so beneficially on the secretive organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces. It is no alcoholic appetizer which stimulates for a while, only to let the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen. IT REGULATES THE BOWELS, quiets the nerves, and gives such a healthy tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid feel like a new person. Its operation is NOT VIOLENT, but is characterized by great gentleness; the patient experiences no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually his troubles

"Fold their tents, like the Arabs,
And silently steal away."

This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long used with wonderful medical results, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful tonic and alterative known." Ask your druggist for it. For sale by WM. E. KIDDER & CO., N. York.

To THE person making up a club of ten at $1.25, we will send one copy of the SENTINEL for one year free.
